Greetings friends,

What a lovely service we enjoyed last Sunday! All four of our honored young men did such a nice job. We are proud of their work this past year and look forward to watching what God does in their lives going forward!

On Wednesday, my sisters, Mark and my brother-in-law drove over to Omaha and the funeral of my sister-in-law's brother. I think many of us can regret the fact that one of the rare times we see the families of our "in-laws" is at funeral. This is especially true when the families live 3+ hours apart. There are times when I really wish this wasn't so, because, in this case especially, there is similarity in our two families that we recognize and appreciate.

They are also a large family – 8 siblings to our 6 (sadly though, now we're 6 and 6). Both of their folks are gone – we knew them and "lost" them in the same span of years as our parents. They grew up in the same era and the age range for them 1st to last child is 12 years to our 9. They are Huskers, while our loyalties are split between Cyclones and Hawkeyes. They have their pranksters and mischief-makers just as we do. They work hard and play hard. But most of all, they love each other deeply and value the bonds of family. They all love Jesus and each works to make a difference in their world. Why wouldn't we enjoy spending more time with them?

Anyway, in spite of the circumstances, it was good to see them. As we grow older and more of us begin to go home to Jesus, it is a blessing to reconnect and appreciate those who remain with us. God is good.

This Week at Grace – Pastor Fred's message, Abiding in the Vine: Connection to Life, is inspired by John 15:1-8. Greeters this week are Mark & Joan Barrett and Craig & Savannah Jensen. Favorite hymn numbers are called out by the congregation at designated times during the service and a wonderful worship experience is enjoyed by all!

May 14th is Mother's Day! You're invited to come join us as we celebrate Mom during our Worship hour! Following the service, we'll have packages (1/2 dozen rolls) of cinnamon rolls for sale! This is a fund-raiser for our Thanksgiving Ingathering projects.

We received word this week that long-time Bethany Life Chaplain, Sandy Anenson, plans to retire on July 15th. What a wonderful ministry she has shared in our community over the years. Her husband, Stephen Anenson, retired a year or so ago from his 30+ years of ministry at Immanuel. The Anenson's have moved down to Ankeny to be closer to both their sons (who are also Lutheran pastors and serving in the Des Moines area) and their young families. We've long appreciated Sandy's genuine smile, her insight, and her warm and gentle ways. She is beloved and valued member of the Bethany Life community and will be dearly missed.

As you pray this week, please remember these friends and hold each up in special prayer:

Duane O'Tool; Denny Michel; Caleb Michel; Jackie Royer (Sharla's friend); George Mackey; Tim (Becky Barclay's brother); Julie Jacobson; Sara Dappen; Norman Patti; Pam Hillis; Lois Johnson; Cooper Leeman, Taylors in Africa
